Society for Psychotherapy Research UK & European Chapters 3rd joint conference Oxford, UK, 2017

“Psychotherapy practice and research: Finding the common ground”

Wednesday 20 September 2017 – Friday 22 September 2017
Examination Schools, High Street, Oxford, OX1 4BG, UK

International Keynote Speaker

Bruce Wampold,

Professor Emeritus of Counselling Psychology, University of Wisconsin, Director of Research
Institute, Modum Bad Psychiatric Centre, Norway

This joint conference, co-hosted by SPR UK & European Chapters will focus on psychotherapy practice and clinical applications of research. The results of psychotherapy research have increasingly impacted on psychotherapy practice and delivery over past years. However, key issues remain including how to understand and apply research findings; overcoming obstacles to clinical applications, and finding meaning and relevance in research to promote effective practice and improved clinical intervention. This international conference promises to be a lively and stimulating coming together where practitioners/ researchers from a wide range of clinical modalities and research orientations share their practice, research and experiences. Innovative and up to date research will be shared alongside debate. The conference programme includes panel presentations, paper sessions, workshops and poster sessions. The conference will provide an excellent opportunity to meet and learn from colleagues with differing interests and expertise in clinical applications of research.

The conference will be held in the beautiful setting of the Examination Schools, Oxford, UK. The conference venue can be viewed at: www.venues.ox.ac.uk A formal conference banquet will be hosted in the impressive Grand Hall at Balliol College: www.balliol.ox.ac.uk
